The Prodigal.

The Prodigal.

Inheritors of vast wealth are proverbially spendthrifts. The golden ore is dug from the mine, refined, and coined, by the labor of other hands and the sweat of other brows. Like children playing with an expensive toy, they can form no just estimate of its value. When the donor weighed it, he cast into the balance so many days of unremitting and fatiguing toil, so many anxious and sleepless nights, so much self-denial and so much care. But the inheritor into his balance only—pleasure. The one, values it by what it cost him; the other, for what it will purchase. Like the prodigal in the Scripture parable, he thoughtlessly expends it to gratify the caprice and cravings of his nature. Then comes the last scene—the misory, the remorse, and the long and wearitonne journey back to the home of frugal industry. But there are other predigals. On her favorites our bounteous parent, Nature, hes lavished her richest treasure—health. But the prodigal values it lightly, for it cost him naught, and recklessly squanders it in riotous living. Present pleasure obscures future want. Soon the curtain rises on the last scene. We see him helpless, impoverished—the rich treasures of body and mind all lost—in misery and despair. Remorseful conscience holds up to him the mirror of memory. In his own reckless folly he perceives the cause of his present pain. He resolves to return. The journey is long and tedious, but if he perseveringly follows the right road, he will at length see the haven of his hopes in the distance, and Nature, seeing her invalid child afar off, will come out to meet him, and receive him back with love and blessing. To find the right road homeward, the suffering prodigal should read "The People's Coursen Sees seeing her invalid child afar off, will come out to meet him, and receive him back with love and blessing. To find the right road homeward, the suffering prodigal should read "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser." Therein it is completely mapped out, its landmarks all indicated and its milestones all numbered. Read it, Price $1.50 (postage prepaid.) Address the author and publisher, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

There is no doubt but the present condition of all kinds of business and industry is fearfully depressed, and it behooves every family to look carefully to their expenses. Winter is coming on when children are liable to Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. Coughs and Colds will prevail everywhere, and Consumption, with other throat and lung diseases, will carry off many. These diseases should not be neglected. Doctor's bills are expensive, and we would advise our people to use Bosches's German Syrup. It never has failed. One bottle at 75 cents will keep your whole family well during the winter. Two doses will relieve any case. Sold in all towns in the United States, and by your Druggist, Wilhite & Williams.

Advice Gratis.

The Hon. Alexander H. Stevens says "The Globe Flower Cough Syrup has proven a most valuable remedy to me." Gov. James M. Smith, of Georgia says: "I shall always use it with perfect confidence, and recommend it to the public as a remedy which will afford that satisfaction experienced by me and mine. It excels everything for coughs, colds and obstinate lung affections."

Ex-Gov. Brown, of Ga., says:—"He finds the Globe Flower Cough Syrup a most excellent remedy."

Such endorsement by our great and good men deserves the attention of the afflicted. Those suffering from cough, colds and lung affections should use the Globe Flower Cough Syrup. It will positively cure consumption. the life of a young lady, and has thrown a gloom over respectable households by his rashness and desperation. For nearly five weeks now the earth has either been covored by snow or drenched with rain, so that the pursuit of the agriculturist has been completely suspended. This long continued wet weather has thrown our farmers very much behind with their arrangements for the planting season. In fact, little or nothing towards the prepararation of land has been done, and the long continued rains have partially destroyed the benefits arising from the freezes and snow which preceded. The roads are in a horrible condition, and there is very little

SAN DOMINGO.

San Domingo by colonies. Frequent meetings have been held, and we are informed that a resolution in favor of the project was adopted at a meeting at the Greeley Institute one night last week. It was also decided to hold mass meeting of the County at this place on next Saturday, to which all the colored people of the County are invited. There are the most exaggerated rumors affoat as to the reception which awaits them, if they go. Land, agricultural implements, &c., have been promised, and these wild of the Sabbath School endeared him to all interested in the spiritual welfare of the schemes and plans have as strong believers interested in the spiritual welfare of the young. The death of such a Christian is a loss to the Church and the community, yet we recognize in this bereavement the hand of our Heavenly Father, whose judgments and ways are altogether right, and while we humbly and confidingly submit to this affictive visitation, assured that our brother is now with the Saviour, whom he loved and served on earth, we deem it a privilege to give expression to the regard and esteem in which we held our departed brother. Be it, therefore, now as the famous "forty acres of land and a mule" had just after emancipation. The message of President Grant is no doubt the origin of these deluding asitations, but their object is, we believe, a political one. A laborer on the place of Mr. C. C. Armstrong was summoned to be here next Saturday to testify on oath why he voted the Democratic ticket. The summons was left by an unknown colored man, and has no authority whatever, but it shows that the meeting for next Saturday is intended to

Resolved, That this Church has sustained a great loss in the death of our beloved brother, F. C. v. Borstel, who, as a faithful Deacon and member, devoted to its best interests, was untiring in his labors and prayers for its prosperity; yet we bow in meek and humble submission to the will of our Saviour, assured that He will take care of the Church for which he shed his blood, and that his people are precious to him in their death. hecitate to make a man only a thing when he intends something entirely different. Resolved, That a blank page on our minute book be dedicated to the memory of our deceased brother, and that the Clerk of this Church do inscribe upon it his name, birth, death and age.

Resolved, That the Clerk of this Church do furnish the family of our deceased brother a copy of this preamble and resolutions, and that the same be published in the Anderson between
